fr3lance Productions Presents
A Silver and Gold Christmas Gala

fr3lance Productions, under the direction of Charles Nalley with Assistance and choreography by Kristin Nalley, will join forces with some of the familiar faces at The Colonnade and some new friends to bring an evening of Christmas celebration to The Colonnade Stage.

The event will consist of a two act concert featuring some of the best local talent the area has to offer. Some classic Christmas favorites such as Silent Night, What Child is This and God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen will be sang as well as some more contemporary songs such as Rockin’ Around the Christmas Tree, Let it Snow and Mary Did You Know. Also, some family favorites like Frosty the Snowman and Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer will be sang by some up and coming youngsters.

After the concert concludes, guests will be asked to join our Gala style event across from the theater. At this Gala there will be sweet treats including candy canes, brownies and cookies...even a chocolate fountain! Cocoa and coffee will also be served.

Lastly, we have confirmation that Santa will be attending to bring joy. There will be a photographer there to take family pictures with Santa as well.

Also, the American Cancer Society will be in attendance. They will be doing an auction of gift baskets that will go to benefit the ACS as well as selling “Fight Like a Girl” and “Sock it to Cancer” hoodies...a great Christmas present!

There will be one show only on December 15th at 7:00 p.m. Ticket prices are $15 for adults and $10 for Children ages 5-12. There is no charge for children ages 4 and under.

For tickets call the Box Office at 706-935-9000.

Stageworks Entertainment to Hold Auditions for “Auntie Mame”

Hollie and Zack Baranick, producers for Stageworks Entertainment, will be holding auditions for “Auntie Mame” on January 2 & 3, 2013 from 6:30pm to 8:30pm.

This production of “Auntie Mame” is based on the novel by Patrick Dennis and written by Jerome Lawrence and Robert E. Lee.

Those auditioning will need to be prepared to do a cold read and perform basic stage directions from the directors.

The cast is primarily adult and will need about 40 older teenagers and adults. There is one role for a young boy.

The Colonnade Volunteers Enjoy a Christmas Lunch

The Colonnade Staff and a group of Colonnade Theater participants prepared a traditional Christmas lunch to honor The Colonnade Volunteers. Santa paid a visit and door prizes that had been generously donated by various businesses in the community were awarded to The Volunteers.

It was announced that the new fountain and landscaping will have a plaque installed in memory of long time volunteer coordinator, Elosie Hixson. Current coordinator, Marie Holder was crowned “Miss Colonnade” by the staff in honor of her many years of service.

The Colonnade Volunteers, in their usual giving and caring way, donated various Christmas gifts that will be used by the Catoosa County Sheriff’s Department to ensure a Merry Christmas for needy children in Catoosa County.

Auditions for “The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn”
